Fraternities and Sororities Presenter Jon losso
https://udel.zoom.us/j/8682941217
One of the best opportunities I have had was joining a greek life organization and I am here to discuss the many different organizations that we have on campus. I will also discuss the rush process for guys, girls, and professional fraternities. I will go over a preview of what you can expect if you do decide to join greek life.
Lastly, I will be going over some of my own personal experiences about how I was able to meet a large number of great people in both fraternities and sororities and how I have many connections for personal and professional growth in the future.

Jobs and Internships Presenter Kate Zincone
https://udel.zoom.us/j/8691341868
One of the most rewarding and important aspects of being a college student is applying what you learn in the classroom to the real-world. All students, especially those with a broad major, can benefit from a major-based job or internship. During this power hour we will talk about the different kinds of jobs/internships available, the most helpful UD resources for finding one, and how to best take advantage of your at UD through some sort of work experience. You will learn about the general application process, the standard for creating and building a resume, and the importance of networking when searching for a job/internship.
